

2023 Smart Start Children's Champion Nomination Form

Online Form \(link\)

Each year, Smart Start of New Hanover County celebrates and recognizes members of our community who provide exceptional service to young children and/or their families in New Hanover County during children's first 2,000 days of life, from birth to age 5. Previous nominees have included pediatricians, early childhood educators, social workers, members of volunteer organizations, foster parents, school administrators, etc. Our Annual Breakfast for Children's Champions will recognize all nominees.

2023 Children's Champion Nomination Form

How, in YOUR eyes, does the nominee's accomplishments or actions make them a Champion for Children?

Please use as much space as you need and give specific examples of how you have seen your nominee.

- go above and beyond;
- how their work supports children in their first 2,000 days and those children's caregivers;
- how they have made a difference – to one child or family, to groups of children, or to our early childhood system.
